The Muley Fanatic Foundation and The Wyoming Game and Fish Department are coming together again next spring to host Mule Deer Days to promote and celebrate the icon of the American West. The focus of this event will be to showcase the conservation work that has and continues to be done for mule deer, a species that has declined nearly 40% over the last two decades and with the recent harsh winters they have really declined. They could use all the help they can get.

In addition, the WGFD Inspire a Kid initiative will be front and center to introduce youth to the outdoors by providing resources for families to teach their children how to enjoy outside activities, whether it be fishing, hunting, wildlife photography, hiking or other adventures.
